About us

Instituto Nueva Escuela is a non-profit organization dedicated to transforming Puerto Rico's public education system through the Montessori philosophy and methodology.

Our work

Works hand in hand with schools on their transformation process through the development of collective work, Montessori environments and family committees.

Services

Offers Montessori training courses to principals, teachers and school staff.

Provides Montessori courses and certifications for all levels (0-18).

Establishes Family Programs in each school, where parents participate in school governance and benefit from child development knowledge.
