MOTTO:

Empowering our Youth and children to step up as leaders in their communities.

BROCHURE

BACKGROUND OF ORGANISATION:

Movement towards Education and Youth Empowerment - Sierra Leone (MEYE-SL) is a Community Based Organization established in August, 2016 by a team of young Sierra Leonean professionals with its head office in Bo City, Southern Province, Sierra Leone. MEYE-SL has deep trust in the need to put Youth and children at the center of their own transformation, believing in the capacity of Youth and children to initiate and promote processes that can eliminate factors that inhibit their holistic development with the determination to work as a unit and to increase their self-reliance capacities.

MEYE-SL has been established to help work with disadvantaged Youth and children in communities that are in need of empowerment and self-reliance for themselves. This wish to release them from the claws of persistent poverty, unemployment, poor education, violence, peace and security issues (which could have related to the outbreak of the past eleven years brutal civil war and the recent Ebola outbreak in Sierra Leone). The organization works with underprivileged rural communities in response to poverty reduction, access to education, peace and security, entrepreneurship skills trainings and youth and women empowerment.
