

A group of young people gather and form an idea to help their community.

Young people fill out the application form.

Bridge To Ukraine reviews the application form.

The project group completes PDM training

The project gets funded!

The project group picks up their money!

The project is carried out!

The project group completes a project report.

