Volunteering 4 Development

Who we are

Volunteers Welfare for Community Based Care of Zambia acronym as VOWAZA is a local non-Profit voluntary Organization governed by a team of Board Members and is operating as a legal entity registered in Zambia. It was founded in 2013 by a group of dedicated social workers with a strong motivation to fighting injustice and promoting human rights.

VOWAZA envision a society where volunteering is no barrier, where there is acceptance and respect for the disadvantaged, where volunteers are valued as knowledge brokers, linking know – how with community needs in eliminating gender inequalities. To achieve this vision, VOWAZA collaborates with government, private sector and development partners, coalitions, and local organizations and communities to deliver programs that give women, men, and young people freedom to reach their full potentials and contribute to economic and social transformation.
