

Priority Teachers University's Mission is to provide a safe and supportive learning environment by offering educational tools that decrease societal and emotional barriers.

About Us

Operating since [2016], Priority Teachers University, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt nonprofit mobile education organization that works with local agencies to provide professional training within the community.

Our focus is to increase the quality of life of all participants and enhance their life skills.

CONTACT US:

PO Box 25503
Memphis, Tennessee 38125

(901) 614 - 5288

Priorityteachersuniversity@gmail.com

www.priorityteachersuniversity.com

Priority Teachers University

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

What do we offer?

The High School Equivalency Test (HiSET) Preparation Review Course is designed to assist out of school adults prepare for the Official HiSET Exam and obtain their high school equivalency diploma. During new student orientation half the nonrefundable program fee will be do.

- HiSET Test Prep – 96 hours of intensive study of Language Arts -Writing, Language Arts-Reading, Math, Science, and Social Studies
- An adult learning plan to meet the individual learning needs.
- Outreach classes located in areas close to where you live
- Classroom, small group, and online study materials
- One paid voucher for each test subject.

Why should I take the HiSET Exam?

Passing the HiSET test and earning your high school equivalency diploma opens doors.

- A high school equivalency credential can show employers you have the career readiness skills that allow you to get the job done.
- The high school equivalency credential is portable and accepted in any state. With the HiSET you are able register for college.
- The U.S. Military and other federal agencies recognize the HiSET exam as a legitimate qualifying test.
- The HiSET exam helps to identify which test takers are career and college ready

Upon completion of the HiSET test, participants will be invited to attend the annual HiSET graduate ceremony scheduled in May.

What is on the HiSET Exam?

The HiSET Exam can be taken on the computer or by paper. Candidate will be tested on the following five core areas:

- Language Arts – Reading: 60 percent of the exam is Information Texts and 40 percent Literary Text. The exam is 65 minutes. The test has 50 multiple-choice questions.
- Language Arts – Writing: 43 percent of the exam covers Language Facility, 35 percent Writing Conventions, 22 percent Organization of Ideas. The exam is 120 minutes with 61 multiple-choice questions, and one essay.
- Mathematics: 45 percent of the exam is Algebraic Concepts, 19 percent Numbers and Order of Operations, 18 percent Measurement/Geometry, and 18 percent Data Analysis/Probability/Statistics. The exam is 90 minutes with 55 multiple-choice questions.
- Science: 49 percent Life Science, 28 percent Physical Science, and 23 percent Earth Science. The exam is 80 minutes with 60 multiple choice.
- Social Studies: 35 percent History, 35 percent Civics/Government, 20 percent Economics, and 10 percent Geography. The exam is 70 minutes with 60 multiple-choice questions.
- Test takers can long on hiset.ets.org to view their test scores.