

What We Do

CHAT provides affordable housing to formerly homeless individuals

We coordinate with local community shelters to identify families and individuals in need of housing

We assess the needs of each person and work to match them with suitable affordable housing

For those individuals eligible for CHAT housing, their journey starts with a key...

We connect our residents with community volunteers to help regain vital social connections and build friendships

We connect residents to community resources and help residents work on securing income through employment or other supports

We also provide furniture, food and home maintenance

CHAT provides ongoing social services to ensure long term success in housing

How We Do It

Monthly income Requirement
Low credit score
Bankruptcy
Eviction

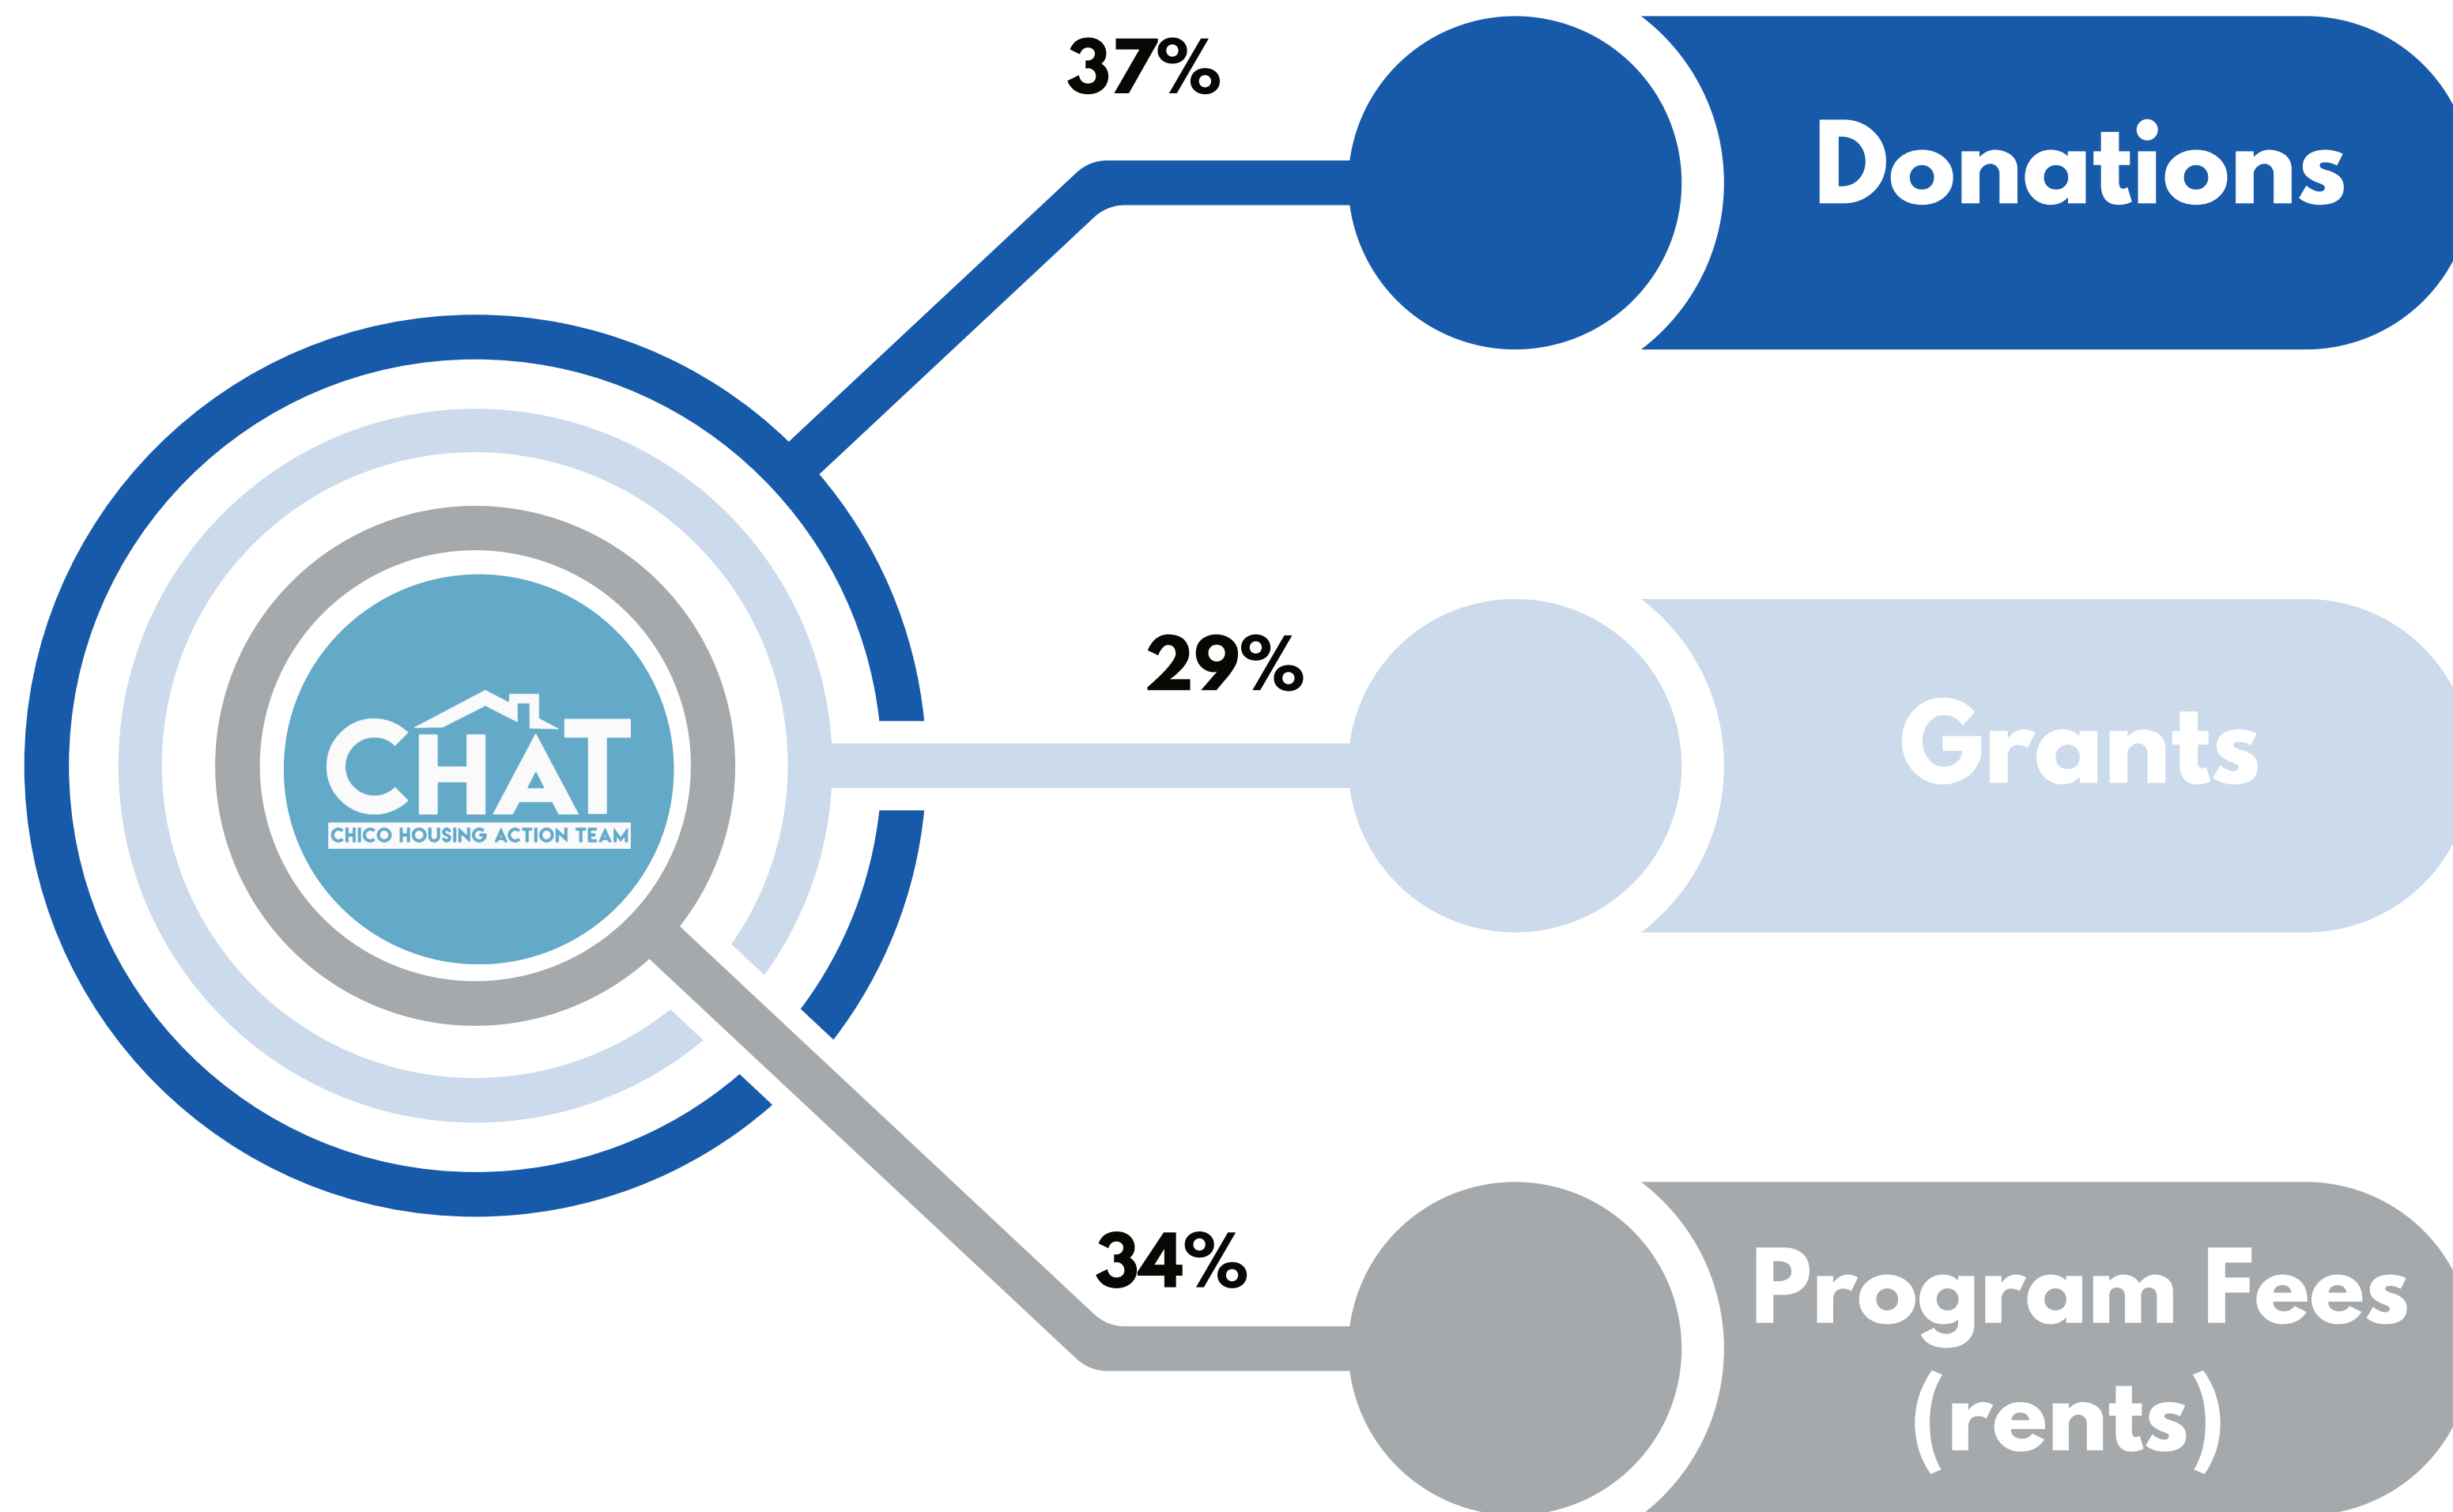

CHAT's Average Cost
$12,000 - $14,000 per person per year

*United States Interagency Council on Homelessness

CHAT Sources of Funding

The generous donations from our community members allow CHAT to support our residents and upkeep the homes they live in. continue its operations. Sustaining donors also enable CHAT to plan for the future.

CHAT receives funding through the city, county, HUD and through state sources. Grants have enabled CHAT to purchase property and fund staff to support residents.

CHAT residents all pay an affordable rent which contributes towards the overall expense of providing housing, utilities, property management, maintenance and furniture.