

The holy month of Ramadan is a significant spiritual and social occasion. However, due to the challenging circumstances Syria is facing, this month has become a major hurdle for many families struggling with a shortage of basic food supplies. This project aims to highlight the urgent need for food basket distribution in Syria during Ramadan and to provide a comprehensive study on the importance of this initiative and the current situation in the country.

Importance of Distributing Ramadan Food Baskets in Syria

- . Food Support: Distributing Ramadan food baskets provides essential food support to needy families, contributing to improving their living conditions and meeting their nutritional needs during the holy month.

- . Alleviating Suffering: This project helps alleviate the suffering experienced by Syrians as a result of the crisis, offering them some psychological and social relief.
- . Strengthening Social Cohesion: Distributing food baskets fosters social cohesion and solidarity among community members, reflecting the spirit of giving and Islamic cooperation.
- . Psychological and Moral Support: Distributing food baskets serves as a message of psychological and moral support for affected families, giving them hope for the future.

The Current Situation in Syria and the Urgent Need

Syria is experiencing a severe humanitarian crisis that has led to a deterioration in the living conditions of most of the population. This crisis includes a severe shortage of basic food supplies, a skyrocketing rise in prices, and an increase in poverty and unemployment rates.

- . Food Shortages: Many Syrians are suffering from severe food shortages, especially in besieged and devastated areas.
- . Rising Prices: Inflation and the collapse of the Syrian pound have led to a skyrocketing increase in food prices, placing many families in a difficult financial situation.
- . Displacement and Homelessness

Project Objectives

- . Provide sufficient food baskets to meet the needs of needy Syrian families during Ramadan.
- . Contribute to alleviating the humanitarian suffering in Syria.
- . Strengthen social cohesion and solidarity among community members.

- . Provide psychological and moral support to affected families.

This campaign is associated with International Humanitarian Relief USA, the fundraising partner of Al Amal International Charity, and funds will be credited to their bank account.